

COLOMBIANS FEAR UNCLE SAM HAS DESIGNS ON THEIR SUNBURNED EQUATORIAL REPUBLIC

sovereignty the Only Issue Taken Up By the Colombian Senate on Canal Question.

NASH CONSIDERATION NOT MENTIONED

people on Isthmus Greatly Agitated on the Rejection.

President Roosevelt Expresses His Keen Disappointment.

[By Telegraph to The Age.] Washington, Aug. 18.—The question of sovereignty is said to be the cause of the rejection of the Panama canal treaty by the Colombian senate.

Cause of failure, it is said here, was the alleged encroachment on Colombian sovereignty, which its opponents contended would result from the treaty. This information was contained in a dispatch received by Mr. Herran, the Colombian charge, from Foreign Minister Ricos at Bogotá. This dispatch showed that in a present form the treaty was absolutely unacceptable to the senate for the reason above stated, and that it had been rejected unanimously. The view taken by the senate was at variance to that held by the government of Colombia, which felt satisfied when it submitted the treaty to congress that there would be no impairment of Colombian sovereignty if the treaty should be ratified.

An interesting feature of the whole debate in the Colombian senate and in the committee's report favoring the treaty is said to be the entire absence of reference to the question of indemnity offered by the United States for the right of way. It was generally supposed that this would cut considerable figure in the discussion of the subject in Colombia, but the question of money consideration, it is said, faded away and was replaced by the sovereignty issue.

Roosevelt Disappointed. Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Upon the return of the president to Sagamore Hill from reviewing the fleet he found awaiting him there information of the rejection by the Colombian senate of the Panama canal treaty. A close friend of the president stated: "While he naturally is disappointed at the action of the congress, he does not desire at this time to make any comments upon it. When it was learned that the Colombian congress intended to amend the treaty it was understood that an intimation was conveyed to the Colombian government that such amendments as were proposed will be unsatisfactory to this government. The absolute rejection of the treaty followed. It is quite certain that the action of Colombia will induce some consolidations of importance in the near future and possibly some action by congress at the extraordinary session."

Excitement on Isthmus. Colon, Colombia, Aug. 18.—The rejection of the canal treaty by the Colombian senate has produced tremendous excitement on the isthmus. It was generally believed that the treaty would pass with some modifications. There is good reason to suppose that the majority of the members of the senate regard the Spooner amendment to build a canal by the Nicaraguan route, if the Panama route was rejected by Colombia, as a mere threat on the part of the United States. They are convinced that the Nicaraguan project is impossible, and that the United States will again deal with Colombia. The rejection is a heavy blow to property owners here, who have been investing heavily on the prospects of the treaty's being ratified.

Feeling at Panama. Panama, Colombia, Aug. 18.—The unanimous rejection of the Panama canal treaty by the senate has caused a profound impression here in all circles. The question on all lips is, what will become of Panama? The only consolation the isthmians have is that the rest of the republic, with the exchange at a very high figure and with an upward tendency, will suffer a great deal more.

SUCCEEDED IN PRYING OPEN ANOTHER PORT

Minister Conger Wins Victory from Stubborn Chinese.

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Peking, Aug. 18.—The arrangement made by Minister Conger for the signing of a treaty between China and the United States for the opening of Mukden and Tatung Tao on the date of Russia's promised final evacuation of Manchuria ends the stubborn resistance by the Chinese which, for some time, promised to be successful. Prince Ching made one defense after another until all were exhausted. He first argued Russian opposition to the opening of these ports. He then said that he was not informed that Russia had consented to the opening. Finally he refused on the ground that China was unable to open towns which were held by another power.

When the present settlement was proposed, with the explanation that China must presume that Russia intended to fulfill her evacuation agreement, Prince Ching reluctantly gave in. Tatung Tao is a small port which does not promise much business to attract foreigners in the near future. Its opening is mainly important as a victory for the open door principle.

KILLED HER HUSBAND RATHER THAN HAVE HIM ANOTHER'S

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Monessen, Pa., Aug. 18.—Harry La Presto, a well known Italian fruit merchant of this city, is dead from a bullet wound in the abdomen, fired from a revolver in the hands of his American wife, Ella La Presto. La Presto and his wife had parted for several weeks, she claiming that he had been unfaithful. Mrs. La Presto made an appointment with her husband to meet later at a friend's house and settle their differences. While La Presto was on the way to the place of appointment Mrs. La Presto rushed from under cover of a thicket and fired twice, the second bullet proving fatal. When arrested the woman admitted having killed her husband and said she was glad of it.

COL. BUNDY'S FUNERAL TO BE WEDNESDAY

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Cincinnati, Aug. 18.—The funeral of William E. Bundy, late United States district attorney, and colonel of the Fifth regiment, Ohio National Guards, is set for 4 p. m. Wednesday. Governor Nash has ordered a battalion of the First infantry to attend the funeral. The body will lie in state at the armory tomorrow. Rev. Howard Henderson, chaplain of the regiment, will conduct the religious exercises. Senator Foraker is here, making arrangements for the funeral. Burial will be at Spring Grove cemetery.

Can't Go to Races.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 18.—No formal visitors called today on the president. It has been announced that he can not attend the international yacht races Thursday, but Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Allen, and some friends will witness the races from the Mayflower.

TURKISH TROOPS ROUTED BY STUBBORN BAND OF INSURGENTS

Fierce Battle Reported from Vicinity of Monastir---Turkey Angered by Russia's Action.

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Sofia, Aug. 18.—A fierce battle is reported near Monastir. Three Turkish battalions attacked a thousand insurgents, and after a six hours' fight the Turkish were repulsed with a loss of 210 killed and wounded. The insurgents' loss is not given.

Constantinople, Aug. 18.—The Russian fleet is expected to arrive off the Turkish coast this afternoon. Its coming has been kept a secret here and is most unwelcome to the Turkish government.

Vienna, Aug. 18.—With the sending of the Russian fleet to Turkish waters, the recent action of Turkey in calling to the colors 52 fresh battalions of the army corps in her European possessions is taken in well informed circles as an indication that the port has reached the conclusion that the Turk's time is near at hand when he will have to fight for existence in Europe, and that the struggle can not much longer be avoided.

The murder of Dr. Maidelstrom, successor of M. Rostkowski, the Russian consul at Monastir, has further complicated the situation and it is difficult to see how Russia can avoid taking action which will protect the lives of her diplomatic agents in European Turkey. This is the third of them who has been killed within the past few months.

Destroy Christian Villages. Sofia, Bulgaria, Aug. 18.—A dispatch received here from Uskub says that 600 Bashi Bazouks, under the command of Albanian chiefs who are notoriously cruel, have pillaged and destroyed a number of Christian villages in the districts of Debre and Okrida. The Turkish authorities, it is added, connived at the outrages and furnished the Bashi Bazouks with uniforms in order that they might appear to be regular soldiers.

Arrested as Spies. Vienna, Aug. 18.—Two men have been arrested at Moena, Austrian Tyrol, on suspicion of being spies. They were found to be in possession of sketches of fortresses on Austrian frontier. One of the prisoners is a professor at Venice and the other is an official of the postoffice at Florence. Both are held for trial.

Russian Squadron Sails. Sebastopol, Aug. 18.—The squadron of the Russian Black sea fleet, which has been ordered to the Turkish coast, has sailed. It is under the command of Rear Admiral Grugeer.

OSCO'S SNAKES ONCE AGAIN BOB UP SERENELY

Bunch of Dead Carcasses Found Stowed Away in Furnace of Steel Mill--Arrests May Follow.

Coshocton still has a bad case of snakes. The old adage that a snake's tail wiggles until sun-down, seems to have been verified and gone one better. Osco's table-d'hot is still with us.

This morning workmen at the Houston Hay Axle plant became aware of the fact that something was dead. The plant is closed down for repairs, and they made a systematic search that resulted in the discovery of a putrifying pile of dead snakes in one of the furnaces.

George A. Hay, president of the company, is highly incensed, and will probably swear out a warrant for the arrest of Laurence Joe Davis, the exhibitor of Osco, who has already paid a $5 fine for the burial of these same snakes. He is now in Ravenna with the carnival company.

It will be remembered that the snakes were first deposited under the platform of the Panhandle freight house, and then moved to a freight car. Squire Wimmer ordered their burial, sub-terrestrial, but the man obeyed by chucking the bundle into the unlighted furnace, thinking doubtless that fire would soon consume them.

Veterans of Grand Army Royally Received in San Francisco.

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

San Francisco, Aug. 18.—The events of the day were of the routine order, nothing special being on the program. Arriving delegations were received and escorted to the quarters assigned to them. San Francisco was ablaze with decorative lights in honor of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, who have been thronging to the Golden Gate for several days to attend their thirty-seventh annual encampment. Market street, from the ferries building on the water front to the city hall, was strung with thousands of red, white and blue electric lights. Long strings of the incandescent bulbs blizzarded their way from one side of Market street to the other. Long, fiery loops hung draped on the fronts of the principal buildings, while dazzling bunches of lights clung to the towering buildings of the Call, the Chronicle and the Examiner buildings, which form a triangle at Third and Market streets.

KANSAS CITY IS AGAIN SWEEPED BY SEVERE FLOODS

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 18.—Boats are again in use to transport persons between the two Kansas Cities, the James street foot and wagon bridge and the Metropolitan Street Railway company's bridge over the Kansas river having been carried out by the strong current. The river is higher than at any time since the June flood, and other structures are in danger. A further rise is expected, as half a dozen tributaries to the Kansas are bank full. The river has been turbulent for over a week past and the strong current has brought in great quantities of driftwood. The James street bridge was partly wrecked. Soon after it went out in the morning it floated down and took out the street railway bridge, severing the main line of communication across the river and carrying with it the Kansas City gas main and telephone cable.

CLOUDBURST DOES DAMAGE IN TENNESSEE

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Greenville, Tenn., Aug. 18.—The cloudburst last night extended from above this place to Morristown. Streets are inundated and stores flooded, damaging the stocks. The electric light and water plants here are made useless. Robert Parks and his seven year old son were drowned in attempting to cross a stream.

Killed All Christians.

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Sofia, Aug. 18.—Reports have reached here from Constantinople, and are believed to be authentic, that confirm previous statements that when the Turks captured Krusheo, they slaughtered the entire Christian population. Among those killed were employees of the government tobacco establishments, which were under European control, as the proceeds of their establishments were assigned to the payment of the Turkish debt.

Distressing Early Morning Accident Near Adams Mills.

Cause is Mystery, but Supposed to be Muddy Water.

Charles Hahn was hurled into eternity by the explosion of a traction engine boiler, on the farm of Fred W. Hawk, six miles east of Adams Mills at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The young man was in charge of the engine, having come from Zanesville a few days ago, where he was employed in a livery barn.

Young Hahn started up the engine as usual this morning, and the threshers all started to work. David Hahn, the father of the young man and owner of the threshing outfit, was at the feed table and had fed four sheaves when a violent explosion occurred.

The engine stood sixty feet from the barn. The huge boiler was blown high up in the air.

It passed a little to the right of the men who were working on the separator, and fell through the roof of the barn into the hay mow. Had it passed in a straight line instead of veering to the right, the men on the machine must all have been killed.

BLOWN OVER FENCE.

Charles Hahn was standing near his engine. He was blown a distance of about twenty yards over a fence and across the road.

His breast was washed and both arms were broken. When picked up a moment later the spark of life had been snuffed out.

The wheat stack was set on fire, but was easily extinguished.

Harry Baker, who was near the separator, Charley Aler, Arthur Krebs and Will Wiler were slightly scalded.

The young men were taken to the Hawk home and Undertaker Shlirer was summoned from Dresden. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made, but interment will probably be made at the Mt. Zion cemetery.

No one will ever know the exact cause of the sad accident, but the theory is that the feeder from the boiler to the gauge had become clogged by mud and the water was thus shut off.

QUIET YOUNG MAN.

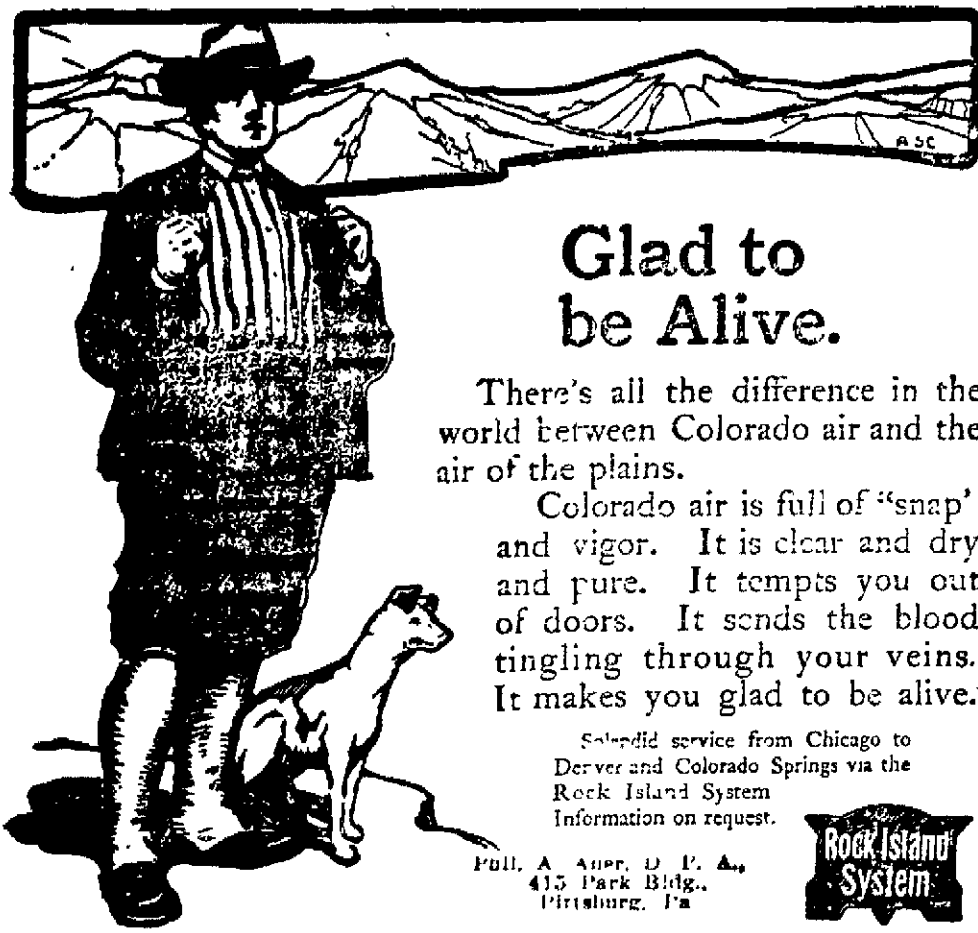

The victim of the accident was a quiet, unassuming young man of twenty years. He was born and reared near Wills Creek. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hahn, live on the old Kiser farm just southeast of Coshocton, and are well known in this vicinity. They are heartbroken over the death of their son.

He left here last spring and had been employed at Zanesville until about a week ago, when his father sent for him to come up and help him during the threshing season.

Beside his parents he is survived by the following brothers: Allen Hahn, at Dresden; John Hahn, in Indiana; and George Hahn, who lies at the point of death at his home just below Coshocton.

Mr. Hawk, on whose farm the accident occurred, was in Coshocton at the time, and remained here until afternoon. He was greatly distressed over the death of young Hahn, whom he had left asleep in bed when he started to town this morning. The dead body remains at his home, and the funeral will probably take place from there, on account of the serious illness of another brother at the Hahn home.

Brevities of News From Over the Buckeye State

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Newark, O., Aug. 18.—Hurry and bustle marked the opening days of the divisional camp of the Ohio National Guard at Camp McKinley. Every nerve was strained to complete all preparations for the work and all appears to have been accomplished and everything in readiness for serious work. General Dick issued an order relative to the death of Colonel W. E. Bundy of the first regiment. The orders were transmitted to the several commands and read at parade. The flag at division headquarters was placed at half mast and the first has its colors draped in crepe. Six thousand men are in camp.

All diseases and affections of the SKIN

Positively cleared away in a hurry. I vouch for it.

Thousands of wretched people are miserable—imagining they have a bad poisoning of the blood—when in nine cases out of ten it is purely a local parasitic manifestation in the skin which can be cleared away in a hurry.

Such misery now cleared away as surely as the sun shines above. Not merely ATTEMPTED—not a matter of improvement only—but a clearing of it all away absolutely—and quickly, too.

ECZEMA.

The photograph showing the terrible inroads Eczema had made on this boy's face and head can be seen at our store. This work of the camera is the best evidence of the curative qualities of the D. D. D. Remedy.

Case of Sammy Minkey. Cleared away and entirely cured in 21 days. Fully proven to us.

We vouch for this—absolutely.

It has been proven to us beyond the possibility of doubt that a new medicament known as D. D. D. clears up the worst skin affections quickly. Its work seems astonishing, amazing, almost miraculous. (It is a specific formula which, because of its discovery by Dr. Decator Dennis, is known as "D. D. D."). Its actual record sounds like a story of magic. But there is no room for doubt about it whatever; full proofs are available in every respect, have been submitted to us regarding hundreds of cases—and among them the one case shown here of the boy (Sammy Minkey), who was cured in 21 days. The results are not only complete, but permanent; in this case it is now nearly two years since the disease was cleared out of the skin, and no taint of it has appeared since.

Each one of the known skin affections is parasitic in nature, and all of them have yielded to "D. D. D." The preparation is being used by most of the skin specialists. It is compounded for druggists solely by the D. D. D. Co., 70 Dearborn St., Chicago. It is utilized by every family physician who has taken the trouble to investigate the work it is accomplishing. It is used in the Cook County Hospital, Chicago. It will clear away any parasitic break in the skin in from 3 days to 60 days' time. What the undersigned and see proofs that will make you a happier human. $1.00 per bottle. The prescription—already made up in sealed bottles, with authentic label or receipt.

FINER THAN EVER

Will Be the Ohio State Fair to Be Held at Columbus,

AUGUST 31, SEPT. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Beauties and Attractions Will Eclipse All Former Exhibitions

FIVE FULL DAYS OF INTEREST.

Exposition Buildings Extensive in Proportion and Grandly Arranged For the Numerous Departments of the Fair—Special Features and High Class Attractions For Each Day Free to All—Fine Speed Program.

The beauties and attractions of the Ohio State Fair Grounds at Columbus are many. The buildings that have been constructed upon them are grand in appearance, extensive in capacity, and most convenient in arrangement for exhibition purposes.

Any attempt to describe the grounds must be futile. They must be seen to be appreciated, and enjoyed they can not help but be by all who visit them and have in their nature a spark of love for the beautiful in nature intensified by the touch of art. Upon entering the grounds from either of the main gates, the picture begins to unfold, as the eye takes a general glance at the surroundings. Clean walks and hard gravel drives lead in every direction, winding about the massive buildings and coursing the reserves of rich lawn and shaded retreats, conspicuous for grandeur and inviting for rest. The principal avenues are lined with large, healthy trees, the branches of which overlap and form a bower of beauty, delightful in appearance and refreshing.

LEADING TOWARD WOMAN'S BUILDING—OHIO STATE FAIR.

ing to the patrons of the fair in wending their way from one point to another over the grounds. Glittering lakes, on the bosom of which majestically float the finest specimens of water fowl, are encountered in three different portions of the grounds, and these attract and hold the attention of every passer-by. The gently sloping banks surrounding these lakes are studded with ornamental shrubbery and flowering plants, and on the greensward shaded by trees, some rare and all perfect, the people find seats and lounging places; where, by the comfort afforded and the vision feast enjoyed, rest, recreation and the greatest pleasures are secured. The hum of the busy part of the fair is, for the time, forgotten, and the mind is prepared for the lessons to be unfolded or for the absorbing and storing of the knowledge imparted by the lessons gone through.

The exhibition buildings for each of the many departments of the fair rise in massive proportions amidst all these beauties of nature and landscape art and ornamentation, so conspicuous in every direction and so pronounced in grand effect.

First, is the great central group of buildings, seven in number, each separate and independent of the other, yet so constructed and arranged as to give, from a distance, the appearance of one immense structure, covering collections and county displays. The finest specimens of every field and garden crop will be shown. Orchard, greenhouse and flower garden production, in the finest displays of fruit, the rarest and most beautiful of living plants and flowers and loads of cut flowers and floral designs.

The products of the scientific and practical dairy and demonstrations in the art of cheese and butter making, with all the machinery, tools and utensils used in the business.

Next may be seen the great department of mechanics and manufacturers' products, such as stoves, ranges, heaters, plumbers' goods and wares, house furnishings and general hardware. The endless variety of articles and displays in this division is always interesting to all visitors.

Another extremely rich and handsome division of the group of departments is that for carriages, buggies and all fine pleasure and light vehicles. This department has the reputation of being unequalled by any similar show conducted anywhere. While Columbus is the great center of the United States for carriage and buggy factories, the exhibit at the Ohio Fair represents factories from very many cities, attracted by the advantages of the fair and the lively competition for trade at this particular center.

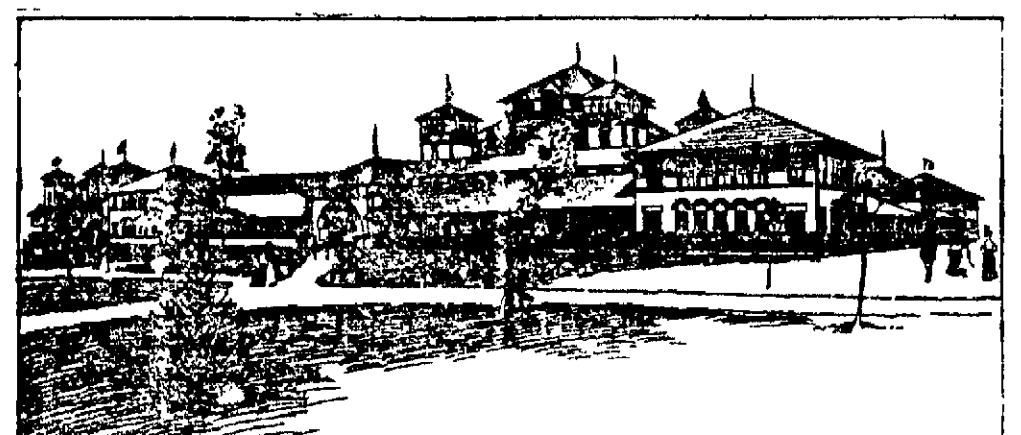

An always interesting department is the one for merchandise and musical instruments, and this year it will be crowded to the utmost capacity with a great variety of the richest and finest merchandise, tastefully arranged in fancy booths and attractive form. Here the visitor lingers long to admire the many beautiful displays and charming effects.

Not far from the group of central buildings with departments distributed as above, stands the woman's building. It is located in a pleasant portion of the grounds, with attractive approaches and surrounded by rich lawn. The building is devoted to exhibits representing the work of women, and is always a feature of the fair. This year many changes have been made in the interior arrangement of the building. New equipment has been provided and the premium list so generally revised and added to that the department will be more interesting than ever before.

It would require columns to describe the appearance of the great live stock buildings and their advantages for the care and exhibition of the different classes of animals. These buildings, one each for horses, cattle, sheep and swine, with a group of five for poultry, occupy a portion of the grounds, not too far distant from the other exhibition buildings, but sufficiently far away and unobstructed by other structures to make the live stock department a noticeable and most attractive division of the fair. The buildings are all substantial in structure and commodious in accommodations. They have already attracted wide attention and have been pronounced by exhibitors and visitors to be all that could possibly be desired for the purpose, and far surpassing the buildings ever seen at any other exposition, state, national or international.

During the fair these several buildings will be filled with representative animals, herds and flocks of the highest types of perfection of the different classes and of the different breeds. Competition for the many prizes offered will be spirited and interesting, as the animals are brought into the arena in attractive form, to be passed upon by the judges. The fanciers of pure-bred live stock will see several acres of ground. Each building of the group is equipped for a particular department and arranged for the best display of the exhibits belonging to the department, so that comparison may be intelligently made and the greatest good result from the object lessons presented. After viewing one distinct class of exhibits the visitor passes into another building where will be found an entirely different class of exhibits, and so on through all the buildings of the group, with never a confusion of ideas by reason of a conglomeration of exhibits that can only confuse those who seek knowledge from the articles and displays presented. Here, in the greatest completeness and in richness of presentation and arrangement, will be found the exhibits of farm products, the best that is produced, and a general show worthy of attention and large patronage.

In the speed department of the fair and in all the classes for fancy drivers and elegant turnouts there will be sufficient to please every taste and excite every interest. Novel features and special attractions have been engaged for presentation each day of the fair, not for an extra price but free to all visitors who have passed the State Fair gates. No one will be disappointed in the special attractions.

Ten bands of music will enliven the occasion and high class concert music will be made a feature. The State Fair of 1923, this hundredth anniversary year of the State, should, and no doubt will, eclipse any former fair.

"Yes," said the gray haired, kindly looking old man thoughtfully, "I thought of promoting James and increasing his salary. He has been here a long time and has been exceedingly faithful. But I'm afraid I can't do it. Poor boy! His family physician says that he has some heart trouble and that any surprise or undue excitement would kill him."

"Is it as bad as that?" asked the cashier.

"Indeed it is," responded the gray haired old man, with a sigh. "I'm sorry for the poor lad, but I don't see what I can do."

"Well, if he's doomed to an early grave," said the cashier slowly, "the least we can do is to see that he dies happy."

"Yes, that's all there is left," acquiesced the proprietor.

"And from what I know of James," continued the cashier, "he couldn't die a happier death than one caused by promotion and an increase in salary."

"Do you really think so?" asked the kindly old man interestedly. "I'd like to do a nice thing for James."

"Oh, I'm sure of it. If it killed him he'd die with a smile on his lips, perfectly happy and at peace with the world."

The old man roused himself after a moment's thought, slowly shook his head and said:

"No; I'd like to do the proper thing for James, but I haven't much confidence in that doctor. I'm afraid he doesn't know his business. We'll let it go for the present."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Powers Takes the Stand.
Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 18.—Powers took the witness stand in his own defense. Examined by Judge Jere R. Morton, he told the story he has repeated on the stand on each of his preceding trials, and inserted new matter now and then by entering a denial to the story told by Frank Cecil of Bell county that he was asking some one to enact the role of assassin. He was very earnest in his denial of the Cecil matter. Attorneys Franklin and Campbell followed his recital closely and often interrupted. The defendant denied that he ever had any other motive in bringing the mountain army to Frankfort than to show the Democratic majority of the general assembly the intense feeling of the Republican voters of the state, and said it had nothing whatever to do with the murder. With his answers to questions it is plainly evident that Powers' defense this time will be that Henry Youtsey fired the shot. The direct examination was not concluded.

Held Up a Car.
St. Louis, Aug. 18.—Beverly S. Warden, who was arrested because he wanted to board a streetcar and none would stop for him, and who finally drew a revolver and forced a motorman to come to a halt, was acquitted in police court. In discharging Warden, Police Judge Tracy said: "Any streetcar motorman brought before me on a substantiated charge of passing passengers on the street corner will be fined the limit of the law. Citizens have rights that are paramount to those of a streetcar company."

The tan on their faces is darker and makes them look healthier, but it is only a mask. They are still nervous, easily tired, by trifles and they do not eat well. What they need is a medicine that tones the nerves, perfects digestion, creates appetite and makes the blood purer. Pupils and teachers will find the chief purpose of a vacation best subserved by the medicine which, as we know, cleans up the whole system."

What You Ought To Know About Ohio Tax Laws

A DISCUSSION BY
LAWYER THORNDIKE AND FARMER PERKINS

NUMBER THREE (To Be Completed in Ten Numbers).

FARMER PERKINS—Continuing our conversation on the tax lists, in practice does anyone refuse to list his property or swear to it after listed?

Lawyer Thorndike—I never knew or heard of a case where a party refused to list or to swear or affirm to after listed?

Farmers Perkins—Can you account for the fact that none refuse to list or to swear to the list?

Lawyer Thorndike—That is easily accounted for. It is easier to beat the state by making one's own list and verifying it than by trusting the as-sessor.

cycle on the tax list at over $10, no matter what the machine cost. Household goods are valued according to the conscience of the tax lister. Goods costing $1,500 in cash can be safely returned at $300. This item 7 on the tax list is always given in the aggregate by the lister, and in practice his valuation is never inquired into. As to jewelry, that is scarcely ever returned as a separate item. Farmers' utensils are only returned at a nominal price, 10 to 25 per cent of cost. As to watches, anywhere from $10 to $40 will go. Pianos costing as much as $300 are usually returned at $40 to $50. Item 10, average value of merchandise, is returned at whatever the lister wishes to put down, and this usually ends it.

Farmers Perkins—Do I understand that each merchant actually values his own goods, and that is the end of it?

Lawyer Thorndike—That is the case. No man can be compelled to give evidence against himself. The tax return is made upon oath, and the violation of that oath is said to be perjury. No lister who has made a list and sworn to it can be compelled to show its falsity.

Farmers Perkins—Suppose my neighbor Abel Jones was conducting a clothing store, selling ready-made clothing, and had $12,000 average stock on hand the year preceding on the day of the tax levy, but only returned it at $4,000. How can the tax authority get at the $12,000 valuation?

Lawyer Thorndike—The tax board must be able to prove by legal evidence that Abel Jones had a $12,000 average stock on the year preceding his return. The Board of Equalization cannot compel Abel Jones to give evidence to prove the average value was $12,000, and unless some of his clerks or his book-keeper inform the tax authorities that Abel Jones had $12,000 average stock it will never be known. A clerk who would give such information would lose his place, and no other house, knowing his conduct, would employ him. Hence the side avenues of information as to the real value of Abel Jones' stock are not open to the tax boards. Self-interest of the parties having the knowledge prevents them from disclosing anything to tax boards.

Farmers Perkins—If Abel Jones had $12,000 average stock of goods and returns but $4,000, is there no way he can be compelled to return the $12,000?

Lawyer Thorndike—No one but Abel Jones, his clerks and book-keeper, knows that his stock which he returned at $4,000 should have been returned at $12,000. Members of tax boards are never given any information of this kind. To do so is considered dishonorable. No competitor would inform for fear of being informed on. No clerk of Abel Jones would inform for him. Hence the tax board can never know that Abel Jones' stock of goods returned at $4,000 should have been returned at $12,000.

Farmers Perkins—But would not Abel Jones in such case be guilty of perjury?

Lawyer Thorndike—A case of perjury couldn't be made out against him.

Farmers Perkins—Why not?

Lawyer Thorndike—To amount to perjury, it would have to be shown that he knew the average stock was $12,000. Value is scarcely ever a matter of fact, but a matter of opinion. Abel Jones could say that in his opinion the goods were worth but $4,000. He could furnish a dozen or more plausible reasons for such opinion, and as our Independence Day orators have taught us that each, free-born American citizen is entitled to his own opinion, and that it is a sacred right to have it, no matter how unreasonable or absurd, Abel Jones could insist that he had a right to believe his $12,000 stock was only worth $4,000, and no one could gainsay him. He could undoubtedly give many well-grounded reasons for his opinion, and as a result he could not be convicted of perjury in swearing that the average value of a stock of goods invoiced at $12,000 was only worth $4,000 for taxation.

Farmers Perkins—Do I understand then that each merchant can practically and in effect fix the values of his own goods for taxation?

Lawyer Thorndike—That is the case and the state does not and cannot prevent it. The local assessor is falsely so called. When it comes to merchants' and manufacturers' returns the real assessor in each case is the person who makes the tax returns. He values his personal property as low as his conscience will permit, and there is practically no way in which to review his action. If he has sufficient nerve and a lawyer who understands the law on the subject, no Board of Equalization can, in nine cases out of ten, ascertain the real value of his stock. And "real value" has great fluctuations and is a matter of opinion. The Board of Equalization can act only in a few cases, and the tax bearer has twenty chances that his tax list will not be inquired into to one that it will.

Farmers Perkins—Practically, then, Abel Jones, with a stock of $12,000 in clothing, can fix his own assessment?

Lawyer Thorndike—Yes, that is the case. In 1846 a madness seized the legislature to tax everything ad valorem, according to its true value in money. It was then the legislature of Ohio began the task of Sisypheus, in the taxation of personal property, moneys and credits. The same wild, unreasonable sentiment prevailed in the constitutional convention of 1851, and appears in our present constitution.

Alfred Kelley, in the Senate in 1845 and 1846, was the great apostle of the taxation of all classes of personal property. He imagined he could work out his theory, and to begin with he made every man his own assessor. This produced inequality where he expected equality.

The best men in the community took advantage of the situation, and gave notes to their sons and daughters in large amounts enough to cover their credits. All sorts of devices to prevent the return of credits were resorted to, and Mr. Kelley's theory was defeated at the outset. And yet had Mr. Kelley studied the subject, he would have found that his theory had been attempted to be carried into practice 400 years before his time and had signally failed. To illustrate, I know a certain town where there are ten merchants in the same line of business. Nine of them understood the way to work the tax laws, and returned their stocks at about one-tenth of their value. The tenth merchant believed the tax laws as they read, and each year, for ten years, returned his stock of goods at full value. The state made no complaint against the nine, and in the tenth year, the tenth merchant discovered that he had been returning his stock at full value, while his nine competitors had returned theirs away below. He consulted a lawyer about it, and was advised to return his goods thereafter on his competitors' plan, which he did, and there was no complaint against him, as there had been none against competitors for the previous ten years. Of course the honest merchant saw that he had robbed himself and that the state had taken his money and not sought to compel his competitors to live up to the law as he had done. When the state encourages its citizens to follow a certain course, it ought to compel the others who will not to do the same, but it does not, and in fact it is powerless to do so.

For fifty-eight years the state has maintained schools for moral perjury. It has sought and is now seeking to destroy all respect for oaths and for the sanctions of religion. It annually gives lessons in the disregard of both divine and human law. It pretends it will make all its citizens return all their property, money, credits, etc., at full value, but never has done so, never can do so, and never will do so. Its laws are only a burden on the conscience of those who possess conscience, and it obtains full returns only from that class, from those who have nothing to conceal, from widows, orphans and trustees. Laws which thus operate are a disgrace to the state, and tend to demoralize its citizens. It is time the citizens of Ohio should cease to be hypocrites, should look each other in the face and tell the truth.

TRYING WITH YOUR HEALTH

Is like Playing with a loaded Gun. If you have Kidney Trouble attend to it at once.

It is easy to tell whether your Kidneys or bladder are diseased. Take a bottle of glass tumbler and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment—a powder-like substance—after standing a day and night, if it is pale or discolored, rosy or stringy, there is something wrong with the Kidneys. Other sure signs of disease are a desire to urinate often, pain in the back, or if your urine stains linen.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Chronic Constipation, and the sicknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night, and puts an end to the scalding pain when passing urine.

The Rev. Henry P. Miller, pastor Baptist Church, Spartanburg, S. C., writes:

"For years I suffered with Kidney, liver and heart troubles, swimming in the head, dull headache and numbness of the limbs. Physicians prescribed for me and I took different medicines, but none of them did me any good. But Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me in about two weeks."

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose.

EAST LIVERPOOL AGITATED OVER DISAPPEARANCE OF GIRL

Mabel "Marble's" Name is Gromo and Her Parents are Distracted Over Her Absence.

"Mabel Marble," the girl who went after experience through a carnival company, is still there. Her name is Mabel Gromo. The East Liverpool Crisis, contains the following item concerning the misled young lady:
John Gromo, residing near Chester, father of the pretty seventeen-year-old girl who recently very mysteriously disappeared from this city, has found his efforts to locate his missing daughter in vain. There was no reply to the telegrams sent to Alliance, and Gromo now believes that his daughter is with the carnival company at Wellsburg, W. Va., where it has an engagement this week.
The failure to receive a reply has very much agitated the girl's parents. Her friends in the city are also much alarmed that no information concerning here whereabouts can be obtained. Chief Wyman has assisted in making an investigation, but all efforts have so far proved futile. Mr. Gromo, Monday afternoon, sent a dispatch to Wellsburg, to ascertain if Mabel is with the outfit in that city. He wants her to return to her home immediately.

The case is very peculiar, as during her employment in this city, Miss Gromo conducted herself as a well-behaved young lady. Her friends believe that she became infatuated with one of the men connected with the company during its stay here, and that while the company was here she made arrangements to join him when opportunity afforded itself. She has been missing from her Third street boarding place now for ten days.

FIRST CALL MEN GATHER FOR THEIR ANNUAL REUNION

S. H. Nicholas' Kenilworth farm is teeming with old soldiers this afternoon. The reunion is for first call men, and many of them arrived this morning.
Among the most distinguished of the arrivals is J. E. Hanger, who is said to be the first Confederate soldier wounded in the war of the rebellion. He was shot by a shell from one of the Union guns at the battle of Phillipi, W. Va., June 3, 1861, and had his leg amputated. He is now living in Washington, D. C.
The speechmaking commenced this afternoon, and will be continued at the camp fire this evening.

LOCAL MEN WANT TO BUILD A GLASS FACTORY

An organization of local men is anxious to put in a glass bottle factory here, if a suitable site can be found. They are all experienced glass men, and have the money behind them to carry out their plans, if a site can be secured. They are: James Bard, Yon Easton, James Johnson, Al Jaravos, Charles Brown, Matt, and Sam Mullen.
They have endeavored to get hold of the old iron mill plant, but the owners insist upon either a purchase or a long lease. The building would have to be practically rebuilt for their purposes.
It is likely the gentlemen will reach some definite conclusion in a few days. The factory would give employment for from fifty to a hundred men at the start.

RIP SAW SLASHED TWO FINGERS

Melville Fisher had the second and third fingers of his left hand slightly mangled by a rip saw at the Boston Piano factory Monday afternoon. His own machine is a sander and polisher, and he was only working on the rip saw temporarily. The guard on the saw had been changed and his fingers slipped in against the saw. Mr. Fisher will probably be able to resume his work in about a week.

A mistake in train orders is given as the cause of the accident.

Receivers Appointed.
Norfolk, Va., Aug. 13.—Judge Waddill in the United States circuit court appointed receivers for the Oliver Refining company of this city. Liabilities $272,000, and the assets are said to be considerably more.

Grasshoppers Delay Traffic.
Red Lodge, Mont., Aug. 13.—Grasshoppers are so thick in this section that they are plastered each day on the locomotives of trains and the wheels are so slippery that when the locomotives stop it is difficult to start them again. They have eaten the range bare.

One Killed, Score Hurt.
Carthage, Mo., Aug. 13.—A head-end collision took place on the Carthage-Joplin electric railway three miles from this place. Motorman James Baker was killed, Motorman Ed Hedge was probably fatally hurt, and 25
other persons were injured.

Magnificent Naval Spectacle Is Reviewed by Roosevelt.

LAUDS THE YANKEE SEA FIGHTERS

Says the American Navy Is the Most Efficient Fighting Force in the World—First Naval Review by the President in Time of Peace in the Nation's History.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 13.—The review and inspection of the American fleet of warships by President Roosevelt was the first in the history of the nation in time of peace.

The ceremony was a fine, magnificent and impressive naval spectacle. It was unmarred by the slightest mishap until just at its conclusion,
when the torpedo boat destroyer
Barry rammed the destroyer Decatur, however doing little damage. The incident was exciting. It occurred just at the moment when the president was receiving congratulations upon the success of the maneuvers.

At the conclusion of the review
President Roosevelt received on board
the Mayflower Rear Admiral Albert S.
Barker, commander-in-chief of the North Atlantic fleet; Rear Admiral James A. Sands, commander of the Caribbean squadron; Rear Admiral Joseph Coghlan, commanding the coast squadron, and Rear Admiral William C. Wise, commanding the training squadron. He also received the captains and commanding officers of the 22 vessels in the fleet and the naval attaches to the legations of four of the great powers.

On the Kearsarge and also on the Olympia President Roosevelt was requested to say a word to the enlisted men. While on the Kearsarge the president spoke as follows:

Officers and Enlisted Men: I wish to say a word of thanks to you on behalf of the people of the United States. There are many public servants whom I hold in high esteem, but there are no others whom I hold in quite the esteem I do the officers and enlisted men of the navy and the army of the United States.

In doing your work here, every bit should be done with an eye toward the day when upon every man, from the admiral to the lowest in rank, may rest the responsibility and duty as to whether or not a new page of honor in American history shall be turned.

As I passed the Olympia, I remembered her grand victory of May 1, 1898, which made her name forever one of renown in our history. But all aboard her, from admiral down to the lowest enlisted man, had been equipped for the work by days and by years of what must have been many times irksome duty. In speaking to all of you I want a chance to say a word of special recognition to the gun pointers. The shots that hit the shots that tell. They are what make the navy prove itself equal to any need. I am happy to say that the American seamen have never been found deficient in the fighting edge, the first requisite of the fighting man. I do not praise you for being brave that is expected. The coward is to be condemned rather than the brave man to be praised. I expect every one to show a perfect willingness to die rather than to see the slightest stain put upon the American flag, but in addition you must know how to fight as well as know how to die, then you will be what I believe you are, the most efficient fighting force in the world. I again thank you for what you are. A peculiar responsibility attaches to each and every one of you. It has been a pleasure to see the ship and the guns,
but above all, the men behind the guns.

At the conclusion the men cheered
the president, and then Admiral Dewey. When the president went to the Yankee, where he met the landsmen in training, he was particularly interested in the fact that all the crew consisted of landsmen who had been only two and a half months in the service,
many from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New England. He expressed himself as particularly pleased with their fine bearing and with readiness they showed in learning their duties, and he called attention to the fact that upon the way in which they performed their duties depended the future efficiency of the United States navy.

Vesuvius Belching Flames.

Naples, Aug. 13.—Vesuvius continues active, and the eruption has now lasted two weeks. On nights when there is no moonlight the spectacle is magnificent, the crater belching flames and smoke to the height of nearly 4,000 feet. In spite of the legend that Naples will be destroyed by Vesuvius the Neapolitans firmly believe that their patron saint, San Gennaro, will stop the flow of lava
with a gesture should it advance too near Naples. The stream of lava, after flowing 2,650 feet in the direction of Ottajano, has stopped, while the other stream is still moving and has reached a point 2,550 feet towards Pompeii.

Auto Reaches Arctic Circle.

Washington, Aug. 13.—Postmaster
General Payne received a cablegram from Charles J. Gliddon, who is making an extensive automobile tour of Europe, saying that he had so far covered 3,590 miles and that he had crossed the Arctic circle in his machine. He also stated that he had officially deposited with the Swedish government an American flag which he had carried across the Arctic circle.

Will Fight With Officer.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 13.—Pat Rogers, one of the six men who broke from the Butte jail on the night of Aug. 8,
has written a letter in which he says he will give himself up if City Detective Murphy will fight a duel with him. Murphy accepted the challenge.

Rioting Spreads.

Hongkong, Aug. 13.—The rioting
which recently occurred at Fat Shan, six miles from Canton, has spread to towns along the railroad. The American engineers at work on the road have fired at the rioters. Several casualties are reported.

AT A TURKISH BATH

You Must Beware of the Disciple of Isaak Walton

The preliminaries of the Turkish bath are simple. You pay a dollar at the door and pass into the cooling room, where the mercury registers 93 degrees. The appropriateness of this title does not burst upon you until you have visited the inner shrine, where the temperature is up near the boiling point. The furniture was simple yet chaste, consisting of a chair and a brush and comb long past their prime.
The comb was chained to the wall, but the brush was permitted to roam at will. Hastily divesting myself of sealskins and other panoplies of rank, I arranged them in a neat pile in the center of the room and placed the chair upon them. This simple precaution I had learned while occupying a room separated from its fellows by low partitions. Your neighbor may be a disciple of Isaak Walton and during your sleep or absence may take a cast over the partition with hook and line.

I was next ushered into the "hot room," where a number of gentlemen were loitering about and perspiring af-fably and fluently. Being of a timid, shrinking nature, I was somewhat embarrassed on entering a room thus filled with strangers, and the more so as I realized that my costume was too bizarre and striking for one of my willowy proportions. So I flung myself with an affectation of easy grace upon a marble divan, but immediately arose therefrom with a vivid blush and a large blister. I then sat upon a seething chair until I came to a boil.

Having basked in this room until I was quite aglow, I summoned the attendant and told him he could take me out at once or wait yet a little longer and remove me through a hose. I then passed into the "manipulating room," where I was laid out on an unelastic marble slab like a "found drowned" at the morgue, and was taken in hand by a muscular attendant, who proceeded to manipulate me with great violence.
Manipulation consists of disjuncting, dismembering, bruising and rending limb from limb, and may be healthful, but it is not popular with me. This man said he was a pianist also, and that he could manipulate and at the same time strengthen his fingers and improve his technique, and to illustrate he struck a few resounding chords in the small of my back and then proceeded to interpret Wagner up and down my vertebrae, running scales, twiddling up in the treble and thundering down in the bass. It was a fine rendering, no doubt, but next time I am to be played upon I shall ask for a soft andante movement—a Chopin nocturne, say.—From "A Few Remarks," by Simeon Ford. By Permission of Doubleday, Page & Co., Publishers, New York.

Timely Yachting Talk

America's Cup Races of the Past and the Men Who First Captured the "Blue Ribbon of the Seas." Costly Sport.

Speculation is rife the world over concerning the outcome of the America's cup races, and the respective contestants, Reliance and Shamrock III, are receiving an amount of attention that would put in the shade a coronation, a durbar or a presidential bear hunt.

"Which will win—Reliance or the Lipton craft?" This query is heard on all sides, and every one, from the policeman on the corner to little Maggie, the junitor's blue eyed daughter, is cultivating the use of yachting terms and wearing sailor hats.

American bettors have wagered enormous sums on the defender of the "old after America had crossed—a victor. In only one series of contests has a British boat succeeded in winning a race. This event took place in 1871, when the challenger, Livonia, finished first in the third race of the series with Columbia, owing to the American craft meeting with an accident. The old Columbia was far superior to Livonia in every way, defeating her in the first two races, and her record would have been perfect had she not met with a mishap.

It is interesting to note that America is still in existence and is tied up in Boston at one of the Charles river bridges. When she was raced in British waters she was owned by Commodore John Cox Stevens, the founder and first commodore of the New York

The America's cup has been held in this country fifty-two years. It was won by the schooner yacht America, Aug. 22, 1851, which defeated a fleet of British boats in British waters in a race around the Isle of Wight. Aurora, the yacht which finished second in that historic contest, did not arrive at the Yacht club, and whose father founded Stevens Institute in Hoboken, N. J. Her sailing master was Captain Dick Brown, late of Brooklyn, and her designer was George Steers, the son of an English shipbuilder who came to this country in 1819. Captain Henry Hoffman, a member of the original crew of America, is the only man now living who was aboard America during her races abroad. On Aug. 4 his carriage was overturned in Brooklyn, and he was badly hurt.

Commodore Stevens was a high spirited mariner. He accepted several challenges with America and was victorious in every one. The first English cutter Laverock was one of his victims in a match race off Cowes shortly before the cup contest.

America was built on the lines of the swift Sandy Hook pilot boats, which are now out of service for the most part. Her appearance aroused a great deal of comment in England, and considerable space was devoted to her in the foreign newspapers both before and after she won the cup.

In the early days of yacht racing, owning and running a yacht was not such an expensive affair. Up to the time when the Thistle came across the Atlantic in 1887 it was doubtful if the total cost to one side had reached $50,000. Since then money has been spent more and more lavishly.

Expensive metals have been used in the construction of the yachts; big crews have been engaged to handle them; tugs have been chartered to tow them from one place to another; a steamer has been hired for the crews to live on, because the yachts are racing machines pure and simple; hollow steel spars have been constructed at great cost in order to lighten their equipment; their sails have been made of the most expensive duck that could be procured, and a hundred and one things have been done that were never thought of twenty-five years ago.

All this has made the sport the most costly in the world. The extravagance has not been confined to the international races. Men with plenty of money have made the racing in the smaller classes just as costly in proportion, so that yachting is justly termed "the millionaires' sport."

Treasurer Removed.

Boston, Aug. 18.—By the action of the New England Methodist Episcopal society at a special meeting Willard B. Allen, the defaulting treasurer of this society, was formally removed as treasurer and librarian. He was not expelled from membership, however, which fact, it was explained, resulted from an oversight. Rev. Dr. George Whitaker was elected to fill the vacant position of treasurer and librarian.

Railways For Philippines.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Secretary Root has been in correspondence with Governor Taft regarding the construction of a system of railroads in the Philippine Islands amounting to some 600 miles. It is proposed to build a line from Manila north through Luzon to the harbor at the northernmost end of the island. Another projected line is a branch from this north and south line over the mountains to the eastern coast.

Petition Granted.

San Francisco, Aug. 18.—Judge Beatty in the United States circuit court rendered judgment in the case of the petition of Roland R. Conklin et al. asking that a receiver be appointed for the Union iron works in this city, and concurred with the courts in the east in naming James Smith, Jr., of Newark, N. J., to act as receiver.

Killed Woman and Self.

New Britain, Conn., Aug. 18.—Frank Shurtleff, an insurance agent, aged 30, shot and killed Mrs. George Schofield at her home here and then shot and killed himself. Shurtleff formerly boarded with Mrs. Schofield. Jealousy and unrequited love is presumed to have been the cause.

INSTITUTE IS IN FULL BLAST AT HIGH SCHOOL

Great Interest Manifest and Splendid Instructors Present.

This is school teachers' week in Coshocton. He of the birch rod and the fertile brain is the one most in evidence. The city should throw its doors wide open to the little army of intellects who are teaching the young idea how to shoot.

The opening session of the Coshocton county teachers' Institute was called to order by Pres. W. A. McCurdy promptly at one o'clock Monday afternoon.

The music is in charge of Prof. Newton, who demonstrates his ability as a teacher by having some of his pupils render selections upon the violin and piano.

Among those who have given selections are Misses Edina Whiting, May Tish, Rose Murphy, and Elecia Patterson.

TEACHER AND HOME LIFE.

Prof. J. F. Treudley, of Ohio University at Athens, was introduced and talked interestingly of the relation of the teacher to the home life of the community in which he is teaching. Prof. Treudley is one of Ohio's foremost educators, having for many years held the position of superintendent of schools at Youngstown, and now is professor of pedagogy at Ohio University. He is logical, forceful, and commands strictest attention by his talks.

Prof. Geo. P. Bible, of the Pennsylvania Chataqua, was next on the program. His subject was "Reading."

ON READING.

Prof. Bible is a master of the subject and gave one of the best expositions of this subject in its relation to school life that has been heard before this institute.

Prof. Bible is an orator of ability and his work this afternoon gives promise of many good things in store for the teachers during this institute.

TUESDAY'S SESSION.

The institute opened this morning at 8:30. After the musical numbers by Prof. Newton and his class, Prof. Geo. P. Bible gave another very instructive talk on Reading. Too much praise can not be given Prof. Bible for the entertaining way in which he handles the subject.

He was followed by Prof. Treudley, whose theme was "Teaching," after which Prof. Bible continued his talk on Reading.

BOOK AGENTS MISSING.

Book men are not so much in evidence as in former years. However, C. M. Barber, of Mt. Vernon, is with us with a full line of "helps" and "teachers' journals."

It seems a little strange that the teachers fail to get in for the first day's session. Only thirty-one were enrolled on Monday. There ought to have been a hundred.

The American Book company has a representative on the grounds.

The attendance today was much better than it was Monday, and President McCurdy is well pleased with the prospects. The country teachers are beginning to drop in, and the institute will soon be going full blast.

The public is cordially invited to attend the sessions and hear some of the excellent lectures which are being delivered daily.

BARGAINS

For the Balance of the Month and our Reason for giving them.

WHY WE DO SO.

There is a fine art of not putting things away that has all the world to do with good store-keeping.

There are still old-fashioned and otherwise good stores that pack goods away season after season until someone comes along to buy them.

No warning tags on them: no word from the salesman that they are not fresh; they are palmed off as new goods at full prices.

It is not our way. Our rule is: Sell this season's goods this season; put lower prices on them, if necessary, to sell them now.

This will explain to you the remarkable activity now in all parts of the store.

It will explain why so many reductions in prices are being made; why this whole space is given up to bargains.

It is simply a clearing of the decks to make ready for the fine fresh stocks that are coming in for the fall.

WHAT WE ARE GOING TO SELL.
